PROJECTS

It's 5 o'clock Somewhere | <https://github.com/Mcilhaggis> | <https://tinyurl.com/y35mj8la>

- This application takes on its users taste preferences, and in return features some unique cocktail recipes that the user can create. Gave assistance to other team members to problem solve their assigned sections.
- Role in development: Storing and retrieving the users chosen beverages and displaying this back to them in a 'favourites' modal as well as writing CSS to translate the wireframe into an aesthetic application.
- HTML, JavaScript, Materialize CSS Framework

Workday Scheduler | <https://github.com/Mcilhaggis> | <https://tinyurl.com/yxzsw5cp>

- A daily scheduler to manage tasks per hour during a workday and storing data to local storage
- An individual project, that stores the user's task per hour and stores the data locally. Each of the HTML elements in this project are created dynamically. Received numerous compliments on the implementation for dynamic creation.
- HTML, Bootstrap CSS, jQuery

Coding Quiz | <https://github.com/Mcilhaggis> | <https://tinyurl.com/y6fadb9n>

- An interactive, timed quiz featuring dynamically created elements and local storage leaderboard
- This project strengthened my understanding of JavaScript actions, reactions, and timing
- HTML, Bootstrap CSS, JavaScript

Weather Dashboard | <https://github.com/Mcilhaggis> | <https://tinyurl.com/yvbpwf22>

- The aim of this project was to retrieve data from another application's API and use it in the context of my own, solidified my understanding of calling APIs and how to dynamically display their information to meet my own goals.
- HTML, CSS, JavaScript, jQuery, Moment.js
